

International Women's Health & Human Rights Schedule for August 2016 Session (open online course)

Unit	Topics Covered	Release Date	To-Do
Introduction	Welcome to the course How a Stanford online course works	August 4	Invite a friend to take the class with you! Ask them to visit internationalwomenshealth.org and sign up for the course
Week 1. Human Rights	Women's rights = Human rights Son preference and demography	August 4	Share your thoughts on this week's content! Visit setsail.io to join the conversation.
Week 2. Education	Education as the "magic" intervention Learning vs. schooling	August 15	Be sure to take the introductory survey for the course! We recommend participating in a discussion group, either on Talkabout (video chat) or in person
August 17 - Watch Tea Time with Anne online, where she responds to your questions! internationalwomenshealth.org/interact.html
Week 3: Adolescence & Vulnerability (Part 1)	Female genital cutting/mutilation	August 22	This week, we cover two topics!
Week 3: Adolescence & Vulnerability (Part 2)	Vulnerability to HIV/AIDS	August 22	We recommend participating in a discussion group, either on Talkabout (video chat) or in person
Week 4: Reproductive Health and Rights	Early marriage and early childbirth Reproductive health, sexuality, maternity, contraception	August 29	Complete "Engage Your Community" Assignment #1 and share your findings on setsail.io
August 31 - Watch Tea Time with Anne online, where she responds to your questions! internationalwomenshealth.org/interact.html

Unit	Topics Covered	Release Date	To-Do
Week 5: Violence in the Home and Community	Domestic violence, rape within the family and community, honor killings and dowry death	September 5	We recommend participating in a discussion group, either on Talkabout (video chat) or in person
Week 6: Women in War and Refugee Situations	The nature of current wars, forced migration, rape as a weapon of war, natural disasters	September 12	We recommend participating in a discussion group, either on Talkabout (video chat) or in person
September 14 - Watch Tea Time with Anne online, where she responds to your questions! internationalwomenshealth.org/interact.html
Week 7: Women's Quest to Escape Poverty	Access to money and work, globalization and its effects on women's work, sex trafficking and sex work	September 19	We recommend taking part in a discussion group, either on Talkabout or in person
Week 8: Aging and the End of Life	Aging, demography, social exclusion and loss, women as caregivers	September 26	Complete "Engage Your Community" Assignment #2 and share your findings on setsail.io
Conclusion	Reflecting back on this experience Choosing priorities and making a difference	September 26	Be sure to take the concluding course survey. We want to hear your voice! Last day to submit work for Statement of Accomplishment: 11:59 PM PST, October 9
October 1 – Watch Tea Time with Anne online, where she responds to your questions! internationalwomenshealth.org/interact.html

Questions about the course?

Read the Frequently Asked Questions about this course. You can also visit setsail.io, our online discussion portal, where our team of online course facilitators will respond to your queries.

Accessing course content

Once you have registered online, you can view weekly course content here.